Across flats | Across corners

Find this information in GEOMETRIC CONSTRUCTION TERMS

a. circumscribe – The process of creating a polygon that fully encloses a circle that is tangent to all of the polygons sides.

b. inscribe – The process of creating a polygon that is fully enclosed by a circle at its corners.

21. When creating a polygon using the circumscribe method, one must know the distance:

A. across the corners.

B. across the flats.

C. around the chord.

D. around the circumference.